

2012 Community Shares Awards Reception

Wednesday, August 15, 2012
Whetstone Shelterhouse at Park of Roses

Community Shares of Mid Ohio recognizes individuals and organizations in central Ohio that have made a significant contribution to building a stronger community.

Public Servant Award

Senator Charleta Tavares

Awarded to a public official in central Ohio who has distinguished himself or herself by encouraging giving and informing other public employees about the Community Shares campaign.

Donor of the Year Award

Ohio Lions Foundation

Awarded to a individual or organization who has distinguished themselves in their support of Community Shares or a member charity. Support can include: volunteering, providing additional donations, securing grants, spokesperson, or other support beyond the expectations of a donor.

Workplace Campaign Award

Capital University

Awarded to a central Ohio employer participating in the Community Shares workplace giving campaign that has distinguished itself by encouraging giving and informing its employees about the Community Shares campaign.

Sonya Mawhorter Volunteer Award

Tom Tootle

Awarded to a central Ohio individual who has actively contributed to Community Shares in a significant and positive way through a member agency or employer campaign.

Social Justice Reporting Award

Edible Columbus

Awarded for the best coverage in central Ohio about social justice issues. Nominations can be for individuals, specific news stories or news organizations in print, radio, television or Internet, either within or outside Community Shares.

Member of the Year Award

Compassionate Communication of Central Ohio

Awarded to the Community Shares' member charity that has made the most notable and significant contributions to building a stronger local community.

Strengthening Community Award

2012 Donor of the Year

Ohio Lions Foundation

100% post-consumer recycled bottle glass